

LAST WILL

(Continued from Page 5)

stupid enough to want them.

I, Ann Chenout, do will my grades in Latin back to Mrs. Robertson.

I, Connie Cook, do will all my F's in Latin to Sue Kinney, who doesn't want them I'm sure.

I, Mira Cook, will all my good times with Mrs. Lord and Mrs. Richardson to my sister.

I, Ann Cooper, do will my ability to make bad grades in algebra to anyone that wants them.

I, Judy Cunningham, will all the fun I've had at Pershing to Bob Weekley and Donny Cook and ten yards of telephone cable to Denny Allen.

I, Valerie Daunoy, being of sound mind, do hereby will my braces to some poor soul that has to wear them.

I, Jill Dreyfus, being of sound mind (I hope), do hereby will to one Becky Cook 3 worn out pencils and 1 leaky pen which has served me faithfully for 3 (?) years.

I, Ann Echols, will all my good times at Pershing to Marcia Horton, and my baility to get in trouble and still make good grades to Sharon Chanslor.

I, Myra Sue Efron, will my one little A in algebra to Lynn Leff.

I, Jimmy Embry, will my fast "Kaiser" to Marty Brandt who thinks it is a good (?) car (?).

I, Judy Emerson, do will my nickname "Ears" back to Richard Pevey and Phillip Cimo.

I, Judy Enquist, will Pershing and everything connected with it to Molly.

I, Joan Garrett, being of sound mind, do hereby will (?) to Miss Wyatt for being such a wonderful algebra teacher.

I, Ralph Grant, will my Latin and algebra grades to anyone who will take them.

I, Patty Hinrichs, do will my fountain pen to whoever can stand the leaky old thing.

I, Melvyn McDaniel, hereby leave my seat in mechanical drawing to anybody who wants it.

I, Pat McElhannon, hereby leave all my broken triangles and ripped books to Gene Cunningham, who sits across from me in math.

I, Genie Moore, will my ability to break my arm to anyone who is foolish enough to want it.

To Judy Pettit, I, Letha Parker, leave all my wonderful grades in mechanical drawing.

I, Judy Phillips, leave my ability to fall off horses to Barba Bates in hopes she won't use it.

I, Polly Poole, being 5 ft. 11 inches, will my grow-tall pills to Barry Weaver, so he can be called "Stilts" next year. I will pitch in my red and yellow Lincoln so he can pester people by riding around.

I, Perry Radoff, being of sound mind and body, will my good grades (?) in Latin and algebra to anyone who wants them.

I, Ray Wright, leave my wonderful grades in algebra and Spanish and my way with Mrs. Brannen to anyone who wants them.

I, Pat Faulkner, being of sound mind, do hereby will to Helen Post my ability to get along with Mrs. Richardson while I stay in Mrs. Lord's classes.

Harkins, Lindley, Endberg Are Elected To Important Offices

The election for next year's cheerleaders and councilmen - at-large was held recently.

Barbara Harkins was elected head cheerleader. Marilu Ellis, Carol Sue Fenaglio, Letitia Kinzbach, Pogie Cornwell, Audrey Riggs, and Mickie Becker, alternate complete the cheerleading squad.

The new councilmen - at-large are Jimmy Lindley and Stephen Engberg.

This year the election was held under new rules. Only students who were not living west of the Belaire railroad tracks and who were in the high eighth or low ninth grade could run. Campaign material was not allowed, but the candidates could visit homerooms and make campaign speeches as long as they didn't interrupt regular classroom procedure. The girls running had to have good grades and conduct.

Sixty-nine girls quanned to run for cheerleader, and out of these fifteen were chosen to run. They were graded on their ability to be a good cheerleader by a group of teachers.

After being chosen to run, the cheerleader candidates were given a

H - 9 Homerooms Have Many Honors

Summer is just around the corner, and at this time each year Pershing loses some of its students to the high schools in Houston. This spring term, Pershing will lose fourteen H-9 homerooms. Each homeroom has a record of which it can be proud.

Out of Mrs. Nettie Barnes' homeroom there are eighteen original class members left of her L-7 homeroom. Scholarship students from L-7 through H-9 are Dianne Duniven, six scholarships, and Joyce Dixon, one scholarship. Both of these girls belong to the National Honor Society.

Other outstanding students include Dianne Frank, cheerleader; Maria Butos, May Fete princess; Charlie Church, L-9 treasurer; Elsa Vaughn and Henry Barrett, all city band.

chance to perform in front of the auditorium for the student body.

The people qualified to run for councilmen-at-large were to prepare a speech, and seven candidates were chosen to run.

On April 27 and 28 all homerooms except those in high nine given ballots and proceeded in their voting.

Snapshot Contest Winners Named

The Photography Club sponsored a contest recently. It started April 25 and ended April 29.

The overall winners are: John Williams, first place; Pam Farrell, second place; and Jeanne Capoot, third place.

The winners from each classification are: Persons, first place, Alan Haufrect; second place, Pat Casey; third place, Ann Clerry. Animals, first place, Harry Dillashaw; second place, Jimmy Oliver; third place, Pam Farrell; second place, Jeanne Capoot; third place, Jeanne Capoot. Color scenes, first, second, and third places go to John Williams.

Phillip Smith, Patty Webber, Bob Warren and Delber Turner are all members of the National Honor Society. Judy Stader was alternate cheerleader 1954 and princess in the 1955 May Fete, Snowflake Queen 1954, Vice-President H-9 class.

In Miss Edith Moreland's homeroom there are 34 left out of the original 36 students. Larry Moore has received 6 scholarships, Mack Kidd, Mary Ruth Magruder and Marianne Miller, two scholarships; Genny McNamara, Phyliss Markham and Joel Mathis, one scholarship. Students in the National Honor Society are Mack Kidd and Marilyn Mott. Judy Mount was head cheerleader for 1954.

Honors won by Miss Moreland's homeroom are winners of L-8 and L-9 hook week and L-8 and L-9 football intramurals.

There are twenty-one original students remaining from Mr. J. A. Moore's L-7 homeroom. Awards of scholarships have been made to Tommy Stevens, one scholarship; and Jerry Schwartz, two scholarships. Arlene Schluter, Mack Theis, Sue Hartgrove and Gus Koerner are members of the National Honor Society. Sheila Scott was 1955 May Fete Princess; Sue Hartgrove was a court jester in 1955 May Fete.

Outstanding students from Mrs. Norma Richardson's homeroom include John Williams and Joyce Von Boeckmann, straight A report card for three years; Joe Taylor, Widy Melchior, scholar-ship; Dianne Duncan, John Williams and Joe Taylor, National Honor Society; Mooneyene Houston, princess 1954-1955 May Fete, 7th grade sweetheart, L-9 secretary. Twenty-six remain from the original L-7 homeroom.

From Mrs. Alice Long's homeroom there are twenty seven students from the original homeroom. Outstanding students from this group include Richard Harris, Emily Hamrick, Ronnie Grant, and Patricia Harrison, National Honor Society; Buddy Ives, King 1955 May Fete; Emily Hamrick, Princess 1955 May Fete; Jack Goddard, Asa Fulton, all city orchestra; Steve Gurnwell, all city band.

Mrs. Long's homeroom was L-7 football champion and H-8 deck tennis champion.

In Mrs. Patricia Maxcy's homeroom there are eighteen out of the original group. Included in the outstanding students are: Pat Kelly, two scholarships; Janet Galeener, Queen of 1955 May Fete, secretary of H-9 class; Carolyn Craddock, Princess 1955 May Fete, 1954 cheerleader.

Mrs. Maxcy's homeroom won the H-9 Deck Tennis championship and girls' L-9 passball intramurals.

In Mrs. Glen Miller's homeroom, there are twenty-eight of the original students. Scholarships have been awarded to Marie Tryling, Marjorie Trulsh, Phillip Smith, and Patty Webber (two scholarships); Diane Van Eaton, Judy Wood, Patty Yale, and Emory Glover (one scholarship).

Phillip Smith, Patty Webber, Bob Warren and Delber Turner are all members of the National Honor Society. Judy Stader was alternate cheerleader 1954 and princess in the 1955 May Fete, Snowflake Queen 1954, Vice-President H-9 class.

Other outstanding students are: Harriett Hocker, Shell Hogue, Jamie Holt, and Robert Arbaugh, members of National Honor Society; Bob Johnson, councilman-at-large, president of Student Council; Andy Horne, president of National Honor Society, president of Southwest area of Junior Hi-Y; Jamie Holt, 1954 cheerleader, ninth grade sweetheart, Princess 1955 May Fete; Jimmy Hunt, president of H-9 class.

Pennants won by the homeroom include: H-7 basketball, L-8 basketball, H-8 softball and L-9 coed volleyball.

From Mrs. Yvonne Well's group there are twelve of the original homeroom remaining. Scholarships were awarded to Mary Kay Manning; Janet Perry was awarded one scholarship; Mary Kay is also a member of the National Honor Society. Other awards made were: Larry Allen, Steve Tatem, Stephens Campbell, Curtis Farris, Art; Jerry McDaniel, Library Service award.

Last Wills And Testaments

MRS. BARNES' HOMEROOM

I, Elna Anderson, do hereby will my good days in Pershing to my cousin, Shirley Anderson???

I, Sloan Banks, will my good times in Mrs. Funchess' room to Jerry Coliel and Eddie Thruston.

I, Francelia Bodden, being of sound mind, will all of my good grades in algebra right back to Mrs. McLure, and Nancy Dawson if she wants them.

I, Judy Bowers, hereby will all my algebra grades to Kathrine Clounts.

I, Ann Burgess, will all my conduct and algebra grades to someone who I'm sure can get along without them.

I, Judy Christiansen, will all of my A's to my brother Dean.

I, Charlie Church, being of sane mind (?), will my ability to high jump to Rack //Babe" Ritze and my ability to drop transmissions to Dickie Cooksey. My ability to get along with my teachers to anyone who wants it.

I, Ima Jean Copeland, being of sound mind (?), leave to Mrs. Scarborough all the notes I have written in her class.

I, Linda Davis, will all my bad grades to all "A" students.

I, Wilma Jean Dickey, hope that my favorite teacher, Mrs. Scarborough, keeps teaching math for studenas that want to learn.

I, Joyce Dixon, do hereby will to my brother, Moris, all my good times at Pershing.

I, Elsa Vaughan, being of sound mind, will all of my good grades in algebra right back to Mrs. McLure, and Karen Ellis if she wants them.

I, Diane Duniven, being of sound mind ???, do hereby will Mrs. Barnes to the incoming Low-7's.

I, Marcel Lamb, will all my Latin A's to Alice Thurston.

I, David Safley, will all my all- A report cards to Mrs. Barnes.

MRS. FUNCHESS' HOMEROOM

I, Jeannine Bond, being of sound mind (?), will my choir robe in mixed chorus (no. 50), and my 91 5/6 average in algebra to some other lucky soul in hopes that the lucky soul might make the other 1 1/6 points needed to make an A.

I, Bill Gorham, will my short pants to Bill Ofke.

I, Maury Howard, do hereby will my lawn mower tires to Carroll Sylvester for his English Ford.

I, John Johnson, hereby will my great knowledge in science (?) to Sam Shaw who'll need it next year.

I, Bill Keller, being a perfect idiot, will all the old, used bricks I can find to Sandra and Claire Emmott

I, Dickie Lindley, being of sound mind, do hereby leave my bottle of dead bugs to Mrs. Southerland.

I, Barbara O'Brien, being of sound mind (?), will my wonderful Latin grades to my brother John in the seventh grade who will probably take Spanish.

I, Peggy O'Neal, being of sound mind (?), will my dented fender and all my fun in Spanish class to Tommy Miller, in hopes that he will have as much fun here as I did.

I, Janice Orr, do hereby will all my blank permits signed by Mrs. Eresch to Richard Bass.

I, Sharon Parisi, being of sound mind (?), will Martha Hooper my ability to get along so well with her brother Ashley.

I, Mary Ruth Parker, do hereby will my one and only A in typing back to Mrs. Rollins.

I, Judy Pettitt, being of sound mind (?), will Linda Parisi my ability to handle her sister, Sharon.

I, Susan Powell, being of sound mind, will all of my used (and unused) admits, to the Devil (Judy Sivley).

I, Ann Poulos, being of sound (?) mind, will all my Spanish knowledge (?) back to Miss Gregory.

I, Marilyn Pratt, being of sound mind and trying to get rid of it, will my little? brother Jimmy (L8) to Carolyn Bridges.

I, Laurie Rayburn, being of unsound mind ain't going to will nothing to nobody, except my great pictures of Marlon Brando to Diane Dishongh, Rui Wise and Nancy Flemming. (Just kidding.)

I, Jim Reid, being of sound mind ? and body ? hereby will my old worn out piece of moldy bread to Mrs. Southerland. (For scientific research???)

I, Linda Reynolds, will my ability to chew gum in class and not get caught to my brother, Joel, who needs it.

I, Neal Richardson, being of sound mind ? will my seat in Mrs. Southerland's science class to Claire Emmott.

I, Frank Richey, ain't going to give nothing to nobody.

I, Suzanne Robinson, being of sound mind (I think) will all my crazy times with Miss Gray in modern dancing to Percine Aurther, hoping she will have as much fun as I have had.

I, Pat Rogers, will my stinking, stolen gym shorts to Chucker Redmon and my smelly T-shirt to Joel Davison.

I, Katherine Roshton being of sound mind (?) will my my ability to get along (?) with Miss Grotte to Lee Trail, in hopes that she will get along as well as I did.

I, Judy Rutledge, being of sound mind, will the good times I've had at Pershing to Anne Taylor and Joany Evans and also my hard typing fingers to the next poor person who can't hit the keys.

I, Alex Wong, being of sound mind and body, do hereby leave my "Marlon Brando and Motor Cycle Crazies" painting to my art teacher, Mrs. Eresch, and my crummy house plan to my math teacher, Mrs. Scarborough.

I, Sue Wooten, being of sound mind (?) hereby leave my history book to anybody that wants a white elephant.

MRS. JONES' HOMEROOM

I, Loulyn Kelly, will to my sister, Jean Kelly, all my happy times in Pershing.

I, Karen Kamin, being of sound mind, do hereby will my ability to make passing grades in Algebra and to make H's in conduct to Nancy Van Eaton. I also will her my good sound mind.

I, Carol Kingelin, being of sound mind (?) will all the great times I've had in Mrs. McLure's class to my sister Mary.

I, Ronnie Kline, having 1/3 of a mind, hereby will Fort Knox to Mrs. Rollins so she can look for Lincoln head pennies at her own risk. I leave her this as a lasting momentum of my typing ability?

I, Sharon Langston, being at times sound minded, leave to my sister, Marsha, my messy homeroom locker on the condition that she cleans it out before she leaves it to my younger brother!

I, Kay Knapp, will my A's and B's in English to my brother Kenny, because he needs them.

I, Bobby Lindsay, being of a good nature, will my ability to get along with Mrs. Madden to Nancy Richards and my good grades in all of my subjects to my little brother coming to Pershing next year.

I, Susan Kaufman, will Mrs. Jones a raft to float home on when it rains.

I, Nancy Knapp, having a mind, do hereby will all of my hard earned!!!! dimes, nickles, pennies and quarters????? to Mrs. Roln-lins in hopes that someday her "COIN" collection will amount to something. Who knows—she might become a millionaire???

I, Susan Kulman, being of sound mind and body ??? leave the grades I wish I could forget in Mrs. McLure's algebra class to Lynn Levy. I hope she won't need them.

I, Stephen Kaufman, leave my ability to type manuscripts to the poor soul who takes typing II and has as much trouble with it as I did. I, Kathleen Kelley, being of sound mind ??? will my cadillac?? which I will receive in the year 3333 to Miss Gray.

MRS. LONG'S HOMEROOM

I, Kay Pegues, hereby will my soreness from modern dancing to Susan Frank.

I, Sustn Smith, hereby will my laugh to Betty Jo Wyatt.

I, Gene "Racer" Harris, hereby will any old rabbit skulls, bird skeletons, and bird legs to Dickie Focke.

I, Emily Hamrick, hereby will my Latin grades to my little sister, Vila, who I hope won't use them.

I, Barbara Free, hereby will to any lucky 7th grader getting Mrs. Long, all my good times with her.

I, Gloria Glisan, will my brother to Janet Britt, who will take him I'm sure.

I, Judy Grajuis, will my beat up gym shoes to anyone unlucky enough to get my gym locker.

I, Brooke Hamilton, being of unsound mind, will my prize piece of left-footed, chopped and lowered cruma-chuma, with the kinked edges and chartreuse stripes to MARY WILKINSON, who can sure use it.

I, Sally Hancock, will Malinda Smith all my dry cereal to put in her bed, since she enjoys it so.

I, Larry Glisan, hereby will my three youngest sisters to Billy Merrill who already has two brothers.

I, Marjane Gill, hereby will all of the wonderful times I've had in Mrs. McLure's algebra class to anyone who is lucky enough to get her.

I, Judy Riehl being of sound mind (?) will my tired aching muscles which I have gained from modern dancing to any poor soul who needs them.

I, Bob Gartner, being of sound mind (?), will all the pencils I have broken in algebra to Larry McLemore.

I, Gail Haskell, hereby will my black and pink full skirt with green people on it to James Hammond and Buddy Ives.

I, Camilla Gramp, hereby will my black and pink gathered skirt with green people on it to John Hamm and Bob Gartner.

I, Joy Hammond, hereby will my gray skirt with green and red stripes to James Hammond (my brother) so he can make a shirt out of it like all the other boys have.

I, Richard Harris, hereby will my World History projects to anyone who is smart enough to find a use for them.

I, Pat Harrison, do hereby will myself as an example of the ragged remains of the average student after three years of Pershing homework to anyone who dares look.

I, Jimmy Hart, hereby will my great and varied knowledge of Spanish to any poor soul who chooses this language.

I, John Focke, hereby will my excellent average extraordinary miraculous algebra grades to my innocent, unsuspecting little brother.

I, Ronnie Grant, don't have nothing I don't want so I ain't goin' to leave it to nobody.

I, Ronnie Zilliox, just cause I ain't all here, will all of my algebra grades over 60 (all of three) to my cousin Sharon Raake.

I, Bob Hoase will my ability to out-drag Dave to Linden Harper.

I, James Hammer; will my 200 squat jumps back to Mr. Denson.

MRS. MAXCY'S HOMEROOM

I, Janet Galeener, will my horrible grades in world history to my sister, Judy, in hopes that she doesn't make the same; and I would will her Carroll, but I'm taking him with me.

I, Ann McTaggart, will my ability to get into all kinds of trouble to my brother, who arrives here next fall.

I, Corky Rinehart, hereby will my good grades in Spanish and algebra to my sister, Judy.

I, John Sample, will my ability to be popped to Lee Hildreth.

I, Kénny Sewell, will my ability to get along with Mr. Denson to Jerry Coble.

I, Phyllis Olive (Oklahoma kid), being unconscious, will my long fingernails to any girl who gets mad at her boy friend.

I, Betty Davis, being of sound mind (?), will my ability to get in trouble to Carol Gaisal.

I, Ralph Trigg, will my nickname, "Trigger", back to Roy Rogers' horse.

I, John Trube, hereby will my wonderful abilities in Latin to John Morgan.

I, Sharon Shippe, being of sound mind, will my tennis shoes to anyone who has big enough feet to wear them.

I, Judy Stpheen, being of sound mind, do hereby will my seat on the bus to Waynette Redfield, in hopes she will make better use of it than I did.

I, Richard Sapp, leave my good (ha!) grades and math book to Jerry Coble.

I, Jackie Williams, leave my white gym shorts to Carroll Sylvester, who needs them.

I, Nancy Rickards, being strictly for good nature, hereby will my naturally curly hair to Mrs. Rollins and my ?? baseball to Bobby Lind-say in hopes each can make good use of them.

I, Harriett Lieberman, will to all the lucky ninth graders, Miss Wyatt a wonderful algebra teacher.

I, Carolyn Craddock, being in my normal (?) state of mind (which is usually mixed up), hereby will my great days as cheerleader to the oncoming cheerleaders in hopes they bring back a "All City team", but they will never have as good a bunch of boys on their team as we did.

I, Boynton Reed, wil the groove in my hand from my Latin book back to Mrs. Robertson.

I, Gayle Carnahan, hereby will my Nifty coupons to Mrs. Robertson.

I, John Stradinger, will my ability (?) to get along with my teachers to my sister, Judy, who won't need it.

I, Betty Rawson, being of sound mind (and all other idiotic remarks) will to "Pancho" Davis my ability to write notes to Carolyn Craddock in third period algebra class without Miss Wyatt seeing us. (At least I thought she didn't.)

I, Jerry Perkins, will my old worn out algebra book to Helen Post.

I, David Redford, will my new track shoes, which I used so little, to David Allums, (who doesn't need them because he beats everybody anyway).

I, Pat Kelley, will (with no regrets) my last days in English to Carol Akkerman.

I, Kathy Unruh, being of sound mind (?) will my good (?) algebra grades and all the fun I've had at Pershing to Lynda Ankerman.

I, Jo Ann Prien, being of sound mind (?) will my conduct cuts in gym to Miss Walters, to give to some other lucky person.

I, Hein Te Porten, will my gym shoes to Mrs. Maxcy.

I, Carol Stevens, will my standing place on the school bus to some poor soul who always arrives late.

I, Mike Williams, being of sound mind etc., will the 1946 Chev. of mine, otherwise known as "The Fast Black," "The Bomb", and "The Pile", to any sucker who wants it.

MISS MILLER'S HOMEROOM

I, Emory Glover, being of sound mind and generous heart, do hereby bequeath to the shortest boy in school one foot of my six; to the grouchiest grouch in school my smile; and to the slowest typist in the coming year, my ability to finish typing lessons.

I, Connie Sue Hercy, being of sound mind and overflowing heart, do will my "Wilco" turtleneck to Cathy Emerson, Sharon Stovall and Mary Lou Richardson.

I, Marilyn Nathan, being of a sound mind and an overflowing heart, leave my seat in typing to anyone. (With the warning not to take it!)

I, Gordon Hurst, being of unsound mind, leave my black hair to any seventh grader and my height to any eighth grader.

I, Jerry Reitz, being of 1/2 per cent Latin mind hereby give my only remembered Latin words: vale, magistra!

I, Everett Richardson, being of sound mind (?) leave my last box of matches to any sucker who wants to try to burn up Pershing.

I, Phillip Smith, being of sound mind, hereby will my ability to frog people to Mrs. Rollins, so that she may use it on other good typing students.

I, Bevo Stovall, being of sound mind, hereby will mine and Sharon's last bottle of peroxide to Miss Miller and Mrs. Rollins with my regards.

I, Judy Strader, being of SANE mind (?) hereby will Judy Strader to Charlie Church. To my sister, Charlene, I hereby will my nickname—"B